

Five Dollars

for $7.50 to $10 Hats.

A. Lisner.

The Palais Royal

G Street.

Easter ends the great volume of the Millinery business—and then comes the opportunity of the wide-awake individual. Is the reader one? Note tomorrow's opportunity and how it came about. The Palais Royal millinery chief visits New York and buys models of hats and samples of feathers and flowers of two leading importers—paying nominal prices. Being too busy in our own workrooms—with hats being made to order of patrons here—a visit is made to New York's leading maker of pattern hats and our materials are made up for us. The result is that one hundred hats, worth $7.50 to $10.00, can be distributed at only $5.00 for choice. Each an exclusive style—no two alike. Ten are illustrated here, and they are by no means the most attractive. One is before the writer—the hat alone is worth $2.50, and it is trimmed with two bunches of violets each worth $1.50; other details and the time of the expert milliner make this hat a model of beauty and an aristocratic bargain at $5.00. As much may be said of each and every one.

Skirts, $1.48.

Wash Skirts, cut and pressed by men tailors. Of covert, duck and linenette, in white, black, gray, navy and tan. All lengths in pleated and gored styles.

$2.50 to $3.50 Waists, $1.98.

Newspaper advertising is profitable only if it is read with confidence. You read the Palais Royal announcements with confidence, because the writer is not permitted to make misrepresentations. Sometimes a warning has to be sounded, as now, when you are told that early visitors will carry off the $3.50 Waists and that later callers must be content with $2.50 values. Another warning—do not judge by a first glance. Some of these waists are disreputable looking—mussed—but a closer view will develop finest materials, daintiest trimmings, and exquisite workmanship.

$1.50 to $2 Waists, 89c

Two of these Waists are pictured above—hundreds more are here. Various styles, with long and short sleeves, opening back and front. Note the quality of embroidery and lace trimmings. All sizes.

Skirts, $1.98.

Linen and Cotton Mohair Skirts, white, tans and grays. Various box and side pleat effects. These will be the popular skirts for the "summer girl" of 1906.

Seasonable Undergarments.

39c 19c 12c
50c Suits. 25c Vests. 18c Vests.

The Swiss Ribbed Glove-fitting Combination Suits, spring weight, with long, short, and no sleeves, high and low necks, knee and ankle lengths, in all sizes. The Swiss Ribbed Vests have V and low necks, short and no sleeves; smallest to extra large sizes; in white, pink and blue.

79c for $1.50 "Nuform" Corsets.

The makers of the famous W. B. Corsets are willing to spend a few hundred dollars in advertising their "Nuform." That's why the price is—temporarily—79c instead of $1.50.

Gossamer Stockings.

14c 25c 35c
25c Values. 35c Values. 50c Values.

The Palais Royal "Special" for the 1906 season is filmy Hose with reinforced tops and feet, assuring strength where most necessary. As little as 25c per pair for such hose—but extraordinarily good values are offered at 35c, or 3 pairs for $1.

Black Lace Lisle Hose, 13c

The wonder is how such Stockings can be profitably retailed at 19c—a greater wonder, now that the price is only 13c per pair. It's only a passing opportunity.

White Silks

25c 39c 49c

The prices are usual—the qualities are very much superior. 23 inches wide at 25c; 27 inches at 39c; 36 inches at 49c yard. Secure samples—comparisons will tell you.

75c Radium Silk, 49c

Shepherd checks and hair-line checks and stripes, the very latest effects. Guaranteed 75c quality at only 49c—a great triumph for the Palais Royal.

$1.00 Silk, 75c; $1.35 Silk, $1.19.

The most-wanted Black Silks of today—the 27-inch Swiss Taffeta—at 75c instead of $1, and the 36-inch guaranteed American Taffeta, at $1.19, instead of $1.35 yard.

$1.00 Wool Fabrics, 89c

And Other Price Surprises.

54-inch Cream Wool Panama Cloth, Serge and Cheviot, usually $1.19, imported to retail at $1.50 per yard. 48-inch Cream Mohair Silken, usually retailed at 98c yard, for only 50c.

Choice for 9c.

Some Worth 25c Yard.

The maker's loom ends—lengths less than 40 yards—are collected during the season and finally distributed at a nominal price. The sale of 1906 will be long remembered—9c per yard for most beautiful of French Organdies, Batiste and Lawn is a price not easily forgotten.

7c for 10c Gingham.

Dimes for 7 cents—that's the only fair comparison. Are not these staple Dress Gingham as surely worth 10 cents as U. S. Silver dimes? All the best colors are now here—on second floor.

19c yard for 37½ Mercerized Poplins and Silk Organdies, with choice of exquisite patterns and colorings. 49c yard for 68c quality figured Silk. Ecolaines, champagne, Alice blue, roses, pink, cream and white. 25c yard for Imported Chiffon Lisse and Printed Mousseline de Soie, for daintiest "Summer Girls." 29c yard for the Challies that help to make the Summer Girl so bewitching. 29c instead of 39c.

Laces Worth Up to $4 for 39c.

The importer's broken lots, comprising bands, medallions, insertings, and edges, up to 12 inches wide, in Point Venice, Irish Crochet, Arabian, Chantilly and Escorial laces. Choice for 39c yard—some worth $4.

42c tomorrow for 50c Brussels Net, 12 inches wide; all colors. 15c tomorrow for Embroideries; broken mesh sets worth up to 40c per yard. 68c tomorrow for 80c Lace Nets, white and cream; 45 inches wide. 48c tomorrow for 68c Swiss Embroidery and All-over; 18 in. wide. 89c tomorrow for $1 Black Silk Chantilly Lace Nets; 45 inches wide. 95c tomorrow for the best All-over Embroidery; worth $1.50 a yard and up.

Best Ribbons at 19c, 25c, and 29c.

Rarest bargains—19c instead of 29c for new six-inch Ribbons for hat trimmings, children's sashes, etc.; 25c for five-inch Messaline Silk Ribbons, worth 35c; 29c for five-inch Black and White Ribbons, worth 40c yard.
